EVENTS AT COLUMBUS.

Suspicious Driving of Hal Pointer Very Nearly Threw the Race to Direct.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 26.-The principal event of the races here to-day was the unfinished special pace between Mr. Hamlin's wonderful gelding Hal Pointer and the California ex-champion Direct for a purse of $5,000. Each had won two heats yesterday, Pointer going off his feet in the last two heats, letting Direct win in slow time. There was some grumbling at the way Pointer was being driven, and it developed into an uproar to-day, when the horses came under the wire head and head in a dead heat, in the comparatively slow time of 2:144. The judges then took matters in their own hands and substituted a new driver for Pointer, who went out and won the sixth heat in 2:11% with ease. Ponce de Leon took the 2:25 trot in straight heats, and Alvin Swift had little trouble to win the 2:17 pace. Summaries: Special race; purse, $5,000:

Thistle Won the 2:19 Pace. HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 26 .- In spite of the rain and a very heavy track the unfinished 2:19 pace, carried over from Wednesday, was called at the Charter Oak track this afternoon and finished. Thistle was the winner. None of the races on Thursday's programme were called, but are carried over. Two heats were necessary to-day to decide the races. Thistle already had two to his credit, and Nellie B. one. Henry H. took the first heat easily. In the second Thistle led all the way around, but it is likely Henry H. would have overtaken him coming up the stretch but for a bad break. Summary:

The Aldine Lodge Case Discussed by the Supreme Council-Close of the Competitive Drill-Prizes to Be Awarded To-Day.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 26.—The morning guns boomed for the last time at Camp Shaw to-day. The exodus of the Knights has begun, and when the sun sets to-morrow the present biennial encampment of the Uniform Rank will be but a memory. The members of the vast army which for the last week has camped on East Eleventh street have been granted a furlough of two years, after which they will reassemble at some city in the United States, to be designated by the Supreme Lodge. Yesterday the Knights began to leave the city in a thin, intermittent stream, which to-day has increased to a mighty living torrent, and to-morrow Camp Shaw will be as silent and deserted as it was last week when the long rows of white tents lay awaiting their occupants.

The Supreme Lodge wrestled with the "Aldine Lodge" case to-day. As was expected, it was no sooner called up than a lively discussion began, which was not ended when the Supreme Lodge adjourned for the day. Finally, when numberless points had been argued at length the entire matter was referred to the committee on law and supervision, of which Supreme Vice-chancellor Ritchie, of Ohio, is chairman. This committee will report at its leisure to the Supreme Lodge, when the now celebrated case will be fairly before that body for final settlement. The discussion of the Aldine case consumed the morning session to the exclusion of other business. It was expected that the location of the encampment for 1894 would be settled to-day, but it was not reported. To-morrow mayedetermine whether Louisville or Minneapolis, the only active aspirants, will be victorious. Sentiment strongly favors Louisville. When the Supreme Lodge adjourned, at 2 o'clock, it adjourned until 9:30

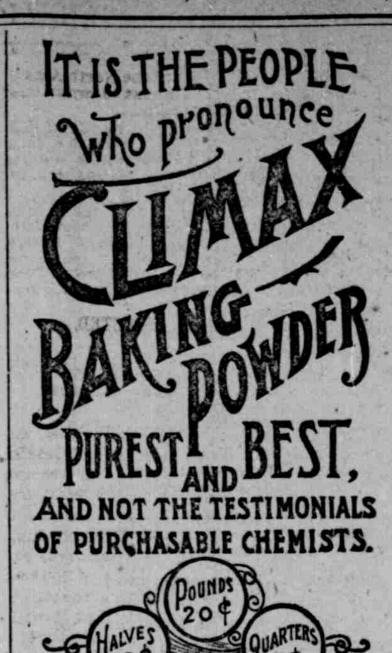

A special meeting of the general committee in charge of the Hill mem-orial fund was held this afternoon. The sub-committee of the general committee submitted a report, which was adopted, and will later be presented to the Supreme Lodge. It proposes this plan for the fund: When the fund now being raised by the general committee of Virginia shall of the Supreme Lodge, $20,000, the whole amount shall be turned over to the grand jurisdiction of Virginia, which shall proceed to erect in Richmond, Va., a memorial hall, to be used for Pythiap purposes only. The plan proposes that the expenditure of the fund shall be made under the direction of a special committee. The competitive drill was resumed at 10 o'clock this morning. Abbott Division. No. 12, of Fall River, Mass., was the first called. Its drill was faulty in every class and a number of movements in the sword exercise were missed entirely. Galaxy Division, No. 38, of Pittsburg, Kan., presented a decidedly military appearance and put up an excellent inspection. John Barr Glenn Division. No. 10, Eau Claire, Wis., made a bad break in the sword manual. Indiana Division, No. 56, of Indianapolis, was next called and was escorted on the field by the Indiana Knights of Pythias regimental band. This division did not create much enthusiasm and are not considered as in the first class.

Capt. Ed. J. Stott was in command. The competitive drill for the grand prize was concluded this afternoon with the execution of the schedule by two maiden divisions, the Springfield, Mo., division and Excelsior division, of Indianapolis. The Springfield division made a good 1mpression. Its marching movements were a good average and the sword manual was fair. The last division to drill was Ex-celsior Division, No. 46, of Indianapolis, Captain H. C. Caster and Lieutenants J. G. Brinse and E. F. Armstrong in com-mand. It was escorted on the field by the First Regiment band, of Indianapolis. The division was fairly well up in the foot and marching movements, and put up a good sword exercise. The judges of inspection, Captain Wilson and Lieutenants Rodiez and Eastman, are somewhat fatigued by their arduous labors, and will submit their reports to Major-general Carnaban at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, after which the awards of prizes will be made and the winning divisions presented with the cash prizes awarded them. There was only one division in the Rialto prize, the Provost, of Kansas City, and it will be awarded the

DREW A CANNON.

Thieving Tramps Who Compelled a Pursuing Crowd to Stand Back.

Shortly after supper yesterday evening, and while Thomas Cavat, who was late, was eating, a big tramp and a little tramp appeared at the Germania House and asked for some coffee. Mrs. Webber, the landlady, told them to go through the hallway to the kitchen and she would accommodate them. As they passed through the hall the little tramp picked up Cavat's coat, which was lying in a window. He did not stop at the kitchen, but walked out of a side gate with the coat. The big tramp and got his coffee, and departed. A few minutes The big tramp was found back of the Illinois House drinking his coffee. Charles Webber started for him. He showed fight, but, when pressed, ran away. Cavat and another ran down South street to head him off on Illinois street. They did so, but be drew a small-sized cannon from his pocket and told them to stand back. They did as requested, and the big tramp ran down South street, to the alley back of the California House, turned into this alley, and has not been seen since. The chase attracted a large crowd of people.

Yesterday's session of the Evangelical Church Synod opened with devotional exercises by the Rev. E. Hoch, of Michigan City. A. Zeller, of Rochester, N. Y., was elected secretary pro tem., and the reports by the presidents of the fifteen presidential districts were read. These reports covered a three years' scope of church work, showing in many cases gratifying results and decided improvements. It was 3 o'clock in the afternoon before these documents were disposed of, when they were given to the committee on reports, who will not be able to report back before Monday, after which time the convention will be able to get thoroughly at work. A resolution was passed that a second teacher of music be appointed for the college at Elmhurst, Ill. Professor Keon, of the University of Leipsic, Germany, was given the place. Rev. E. Eilts, of Breese, Ill., preached last night. A very pleasant surprise occurred yesterday to Prof. E. Otto, formerly professor of theology at Eden College, St. Louis, Mo., who is present as a delegate. There were twenty-seven of his old pupils present, also as delegates, who learned that yesterday was the proper day on which the Pro-fessor should celebrate his silver wedding. They accordingly prepared a spread at the Rev. Mr. Peters's parsonage, on Ohio street and presented him with a silver tea set. The old Professor was greatly surprised.
